

Security organization worksheet

Part 1: Describe your security interests
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Digital Forensics</li><li>● Compliance &amp; Governance (GRC)</li><li>● Incident Response</li></ul>
Part 2: Identify three organizations and include their mission or objectives
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Organization 1: ISACA: A global organization focused on digital trust, governance, risk, and compliance. Offers resources, certifications (like CISA), and community engagement for professionals in auditing, control, and cybersecurity.</li><li>● Organization 2: InfraGard: A partnership between the FBI and private sector focused on national security and infrastructure protection. Members get access to threat briefings, intelligence sharing, and network opportunities.</li><li>● Organization 3: DFIR Training/Magnet Forensics Community: Provides resources, community events, and tools for digital forensics and incident response professionals. Focuses on real-world forensic skills and case handling techniques.</li></ul>
Part 3: Write out which organization aligns with your interests and why <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Organization 1: DFIR Training aligns with my interest in digital forensics and incident response. It offers hands-on tools, tutorials, and curated resources that help build practical forensics skills. However, it's more self-paced and lacks formal networking or certification pathways.</li><li>● Organization 2: ISACA offers globally recognized certifications in cybersecurity, audit, and governance, which supports my interest in compliance and risk management. It also provides professional networking, events, and continuing education. However, the membership and exams can be expensive, which might not suit someone early in their transition.</li><li>● Organization 3: Infragard fits my interest the most because it emphasizes on national security, intelligence sharing, and real-world incident response, all of</li></ul> which align with my goals in digital forensics and cyber law. I also value their FBI partnership and access to threat intel.

- Best choice for my professional interests: Infragard fits my interest the most because it emphasizes on national security, intelligence sharing, and real-world incident response, all of which align with my goals in digital forensics and cyber law. I also value their FBI partnership and access to threat intel.
